

What is keeping you from getting a firefighter badge?

The Chabot College Fire Technology Program is proud to announce a FREE fire department oral board seminar hosted by “Captain Bob” Smith!

DATE: Sunday April 18, 2004

TIME: 1 pm to 3 pm

LOCATION: Room 916, Building 900 at Chabot College

WHY ATTEND? Step by step, everything you need to know in the process, starting with the application, written, physical, oral interview, psych interview, background, polygraph, and medical to gain a badge. You will find the inside “Nuggets”, tips and resources you can’t get anywhere else to shorten the learning curve and the distance between you and that badge. This is information that has helped over 2100 candidates nail their badges!

If you have questions or if you would like to reserve a spot, please email Steve Prziborowski, Fire Technology Coordinator at Chabot College, at sprziborowski@chabotcollege.edu

If you do not have internet access and you would still like to reserve a spot, contact Steve Prziborowski, Fire Technology Coordinator at Chabot College, at (510) 723-6851, and leave your name and phone number.

Fire "Captain Bob" Smith has coached countless entry level and promotional candidates to get their badge. He is a retired 28-year Hayward, California Captain, speaker/author of the audio/video program "Conquer the Job Interview," the books "Fire Up Your Communication Skills" and "Eat Stress For Breakfast", and his latest book, "Becoming a Firefighter: Your Complete Guide to the Badge." He is a coach, publisher, author, frequent talk show guest, (completing over 300 media interviews, including the Barbara Walters Show “The View”), featured in USA Today, rater on job interviews, and member of the prestigious National Speakers Association.

To find out more information about “Captain Bob,” visit his website at www.eatstress.com